Wings Over a Campus

WINGS OVER A CAMPUS by James D. Stone, portrayed on page opposite, is one of several grease pencil sketches loaned to the Pioneer for reproduction by students in Art 15B, under the direction of John Matthews. The young artists, reminded constantly of the war by the never-ending drone of planes flying overhead from neighboring fields, have sought in the ensuing pages to capture the spirit of a strange and fateful year: 1943.

A Message from The Pilot

Wings Over Sacramento Junior College

There are wings now over the nation and over the world, as well as over the Sacramento Junior College. How may we interpret their significance?

Wings are making the world a neighborhood. We now measure distances in hours instead of miles. We can fly from Chicago to any area on the face of the earth, in twenty-four hours. The world is, indeed, a neighborhood!

But wings over the Sacramento Junior College suggest, also, that the world can be made a brotherhood. Being in intimate physical contact makes the world a neighborhood; being in intimate mental contact can make the world a brotherhood.

Planes can now wing their way from place to place. Ideas can wing their way from mind to mind, anywhere in the world, and make the world a brotherhood; but the ideas must be such as to promote international trust and understanding.

Whether or not the world is made both a neighborhood and a brotherhood will depend on you, on youth everywhere in the world; for it cannot be denied that the ideas of the youth of this generation will determine the character of the next generation and the kind of world we shall have.

I have faith in you. I am sure that you can use Wings to help in establishing both a neighborhood and a brotherhood, in order that the world may be "a home to live in instead of a place to fight and freeze and starve in."

Very cordially yours,

NICHOLAS RICCIARDI

Administration

PLOTTING A COURSE through a school year that required many wartime adjustments was the difficult task given to SJC's Administration and Faculty Council, pictured below. Consisting of Administrative Officers and representatives of the faculty-at-large, the Council had to weigh problems, to make suggestions, and to consider such varied programs as war production training for women, flight training for future officers, and a Cooperative Education Plan whereby students could work part time and go to school part time. Much of the wartime adjustment was facilitated by a faculty committee set up for the purpose of coordinating war activities. Acting as a kind of central bureau through which all plans for war training could clear, this group helped to convert SJC into a war factory for the production of skilled technicians.

Fall Semester

Piloted by a carefully written new constitution, the Associated Students of the past school year have had wonderful opportunities to practice genuine democracy in student government. With the combined efforts of the Cabinet, the Senate, the Supreme Court, and the Precincts, the semester progressed under the leadership of Ted Scarborough, pictured upper right hand corner, who was replaced when he resigned by capable Lochlan Richards. Rallies, assemblies, dances, tomato picking to help the farmers, and other activities of the semester were well organized by vivacious Kaye Barnes, Women's Vice President, and active Wilbur Green, Men's Vice President. The two vice presidents are pictured in the upper right photo.

Important generators of student activities are the Booster and Rally Committees, traditional pep committees on the campus. The Booster Committee under the guidance of the Women's Vice President and the Rally Committee under the leadership of the Men's Vice President were important in the promoting and sponsoring of student activities in both the Fall and Spring semesters.

Third row: Barbara Leam, vice president; Joey Stilson, treasurer; Mary Jane Hawthorne, Kay Kinneberg, president; Elizabeth White, Jackie King, Melba Tanner.

Spring Semester

The Spring semester of 1943 will go down in the history of the Sacramento Junior College as marking the opening of the greatly acclaimed campus corral. S. J. C.'s new student union served as a popular club room and congregation center for all lucky student body card holders. The Student Association was piloted successfully through the Spring semester by Scotch Harold McKellips, pictured lower left, who was greatly inspired in his accomplishments by the memory of his grandfather Hoot-Mon McKellips. Close beside McKellips at the controls were hard working Kay Kinneberg, Women's Vice President, and earnest Carl Forsberg, Men's Vice President, both of whom are pictured lower right. The spring semester marked another history making event when over 150 of S. J. C.'s men marched off to serve Uncle Sam.

Squadrons In Formation

SQUADRONS IN FORMATION by Carl Forsberg, Navy V-1 student, who graduates this semester, is appropriate to head the club pages. As Carl puts it, "Just as a squadron of planes flying over the campus require team work and close cooperation, so do successful clubs."

Phi Theta Kappa

The largest chapter of the national junior college honor society, Phi Theta Kappa, is Alpha Pi, the Sacramento Jaysee chapter under the sponsorship of Dr. Copeland.

The president of the organization this last semester is Wilbur Green, the Vice-President is Bob Vance, the Secretary is Laverne Curtis, the Treasurer is Lois Schmidt, the regional representative is Calvin Andrews.

Phi Theta Kappa meetings are noted for their exceptional speakers. Programs are not only educational, but entertaining from a social viewpoint as well.

Art League

The Sacramento Junior College organization which has attained great fame and glory these last few years is the Art League. Sponsored by Mr. John B. Mathew, the club has a membership of fine artists, especially interested in their work.

The main job tackled by this club each fall semester is that of putting on the Art Ball. This is the outstanding social event of the year, with excellent decorations and a pageant surrounding a very suitable theme.

ART LEAGUE

ART LEAGUE OFFICERS

Music Association

Under the capable direction of Stewart Tulley, the music association of the Sacramento Junior College has successfully carried on another year of entertainment for the student body. The group meets informally to discuss its own compositions and to hear notable musicians of Sacramento and the Bay region.

MUSIC ASSOCIATION

OFFICERS

Como Amiga

The Como Amiga Sorority, the oldest on the campus, was organized in March, 1926. Its activities for the current year have been many and varied. In November the girls sponsored "The Cats' Meow;" in January the sorority's annual formal dance was given under the title "Top Hats and Tails." The spring semester found the members serving the U. S. O. The sorority took the responsibility of decorating for Pan-Hellenic's "May Magic." A swimming party for the newly initiated members brought the year to a successful climax.

Sigma Phi Kappa

AN Active social group on the SJC campus is the Sigma Phi Kappa Sorority. This organization does not confine its activities to purely social functions what with serving the U. S. O. and buying a war bond. In early fall the girls sponsored "A Barnyard Frolic" where everyone made merry in barn attire. This was followed by a formal dance in January, "Winter Fantasy." Later in the spring semester the Sigma Phi Kappas sponsored a Cord and Gingham dance which took place in the Women's Gym on the campus, and then Panhellenic terminated the social functions of this sorority.

The officers for the fall term were President Carol Mathison, Vice President Mary Margaret Lucas, Recording Secretary Joyce Hancock, Social secretary Margaret Yost, Treasurer Bonnie Larwick.

The spring officers were Ada Little, President; Hope Deter, Vice President; Joyce Hancock, Recording Secretary; Pat Poulsen, Corresponding Secretary; Betty Muldoon, Social Secretary; Elaine Forsberg, Treasurer.

Sigma Iota Chi

THE ONLY NATIONAL sorority on the campus is the Sigma Iota Chi group. It is the Beta Eta Chapter and is sponsored by Miss Eulah McCartney. This illustrious organization presented a sport dance at the Tuesday Clubhouse last fall under the title of "It's a Match," and they were responsible for the music, hall and patrons for the Panhellenic Formal this spring. A swimming party and barbecue ended one of the most successful neophyte weeks ever held by this group on SJC's campus.

Omega Alpha Kappa

The only fraternity on the campus has truly proven itself worthy of its cause, namely, to bring a group of boys together for both social and charitable aims. This past year has been a successful one for this organization in that it has had two picnics, a joint party with an off-campus sorority, the presentation of a skit entitled "A Night at a Sorority Meeting," in which the boys were the sorority members, and last but not least the sport dance "Kiss the Boys Good-bye," in honor of the boys leaving for the service.

The officers for the fall semester were President Vernon Brammer; Vice-President and Secretary Bill McNaughten; Treasurer Wally Norum; Usher Jimmy Hickman; Guard Carl Forsberg; Historian John Henderson. The group was under the leadership of President Jimmy Hickman for the spring semester with Carl Forsberg, Charles Askine, Clayton Wire, Sam Small, and George McAdow as his helpers.

ROMANY RAWNIES

Romany Rawnies

The largest campus women's club, for out of town girls, is the one designed to carry out social and service activities. At the beginning of every semester a freshman tea and candlelight ceremony is held. This semester the highlight in the life of this busy organization was the banquet held at the Copper Lantern. Parties, too, had an important spot on their social calendar. The group is sponsored by Miss Beth Hightower.

ROMANY RAWNIE OFFICERS

Women's Athletic Association

Phyllis Hunter, top, confined herself to inter-precinct matches this semester; her ability to play was proven when it took a professional to put her out of the running in the Nationals at Forest Hills.

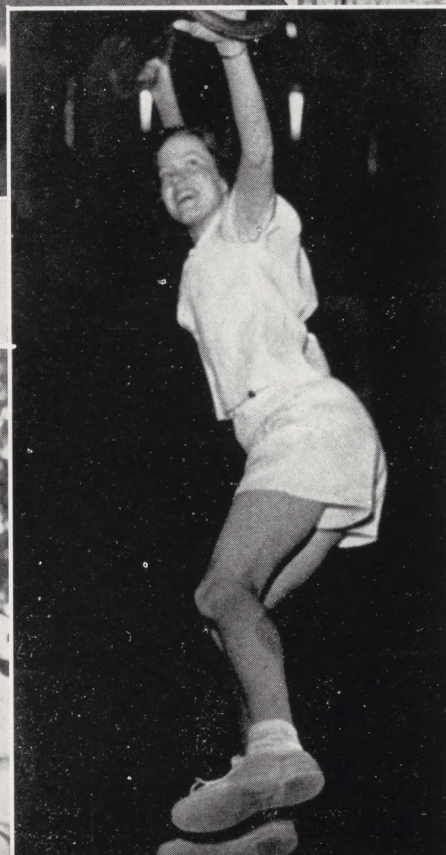

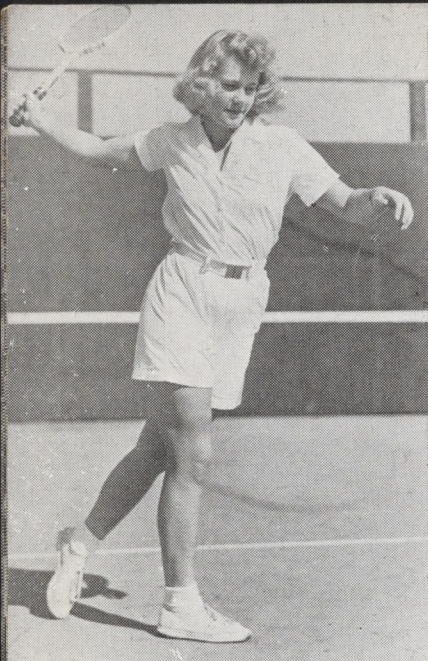

Alice Petta, in the top right, demonstrates one of the women's sports, others include badminton, basketball, bowling, posture, modeling, fencing, dancing, golf, archery, and tennis.

These physical feats are not confined to WAA's alone. Four days, instead of two, for all women built biceps, took down waistlines in a physical fitness program stepped up to meet the war tempo.

WAA officers, lower left, are: Lois Merwin, president; Alice Petta, vice president; Camille Amicle, secretary; Jeanne Riley, treasurer; and Arleen Matson, general sports manager.

Bowling Club

Helen Swenson, Frances Parrott, Laura Wong, Jack Cleek, Dorothy Stastney, Gene Bogue, Kay Apperson, Mary Peck, Betty Krough, Jim Hickman, Don Krebs, Stanley Chun, George Wing, Jack Leong.

The Bowling Club, sponsored by Miss Beth Hightower, had as its project this semester an inter-club, inter-sorority, inter-fraernity bowling meet, held at the Capitol Bowl where the club met every Monday afternoon.

The meet was open to all men and women on the campus, and was especially advantageous to the men as there was no bowling class for them.

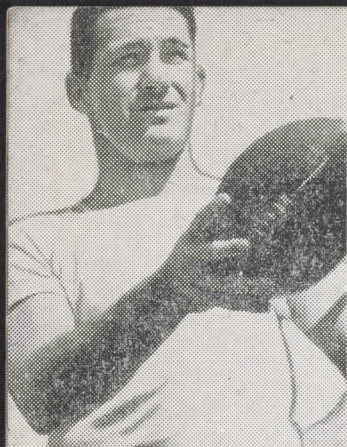

The club had to be reorganized this semester because several of the officers were called into the armed services. Cliff Mott, former president, was one of the first to leave.

BOWLING CLUB OFFICERS

COACH JOHNNY BAKER

Men's Sports . . . Football

Football at SJC this year was coached by a newcomer, Johnny Baker, former USC star. Baker came to SJC from Grant Union High School, and advocated the use of the T-formation, the new sensational style of football which has captivated the interest of coaches, players and fans throughout the country. Although the season lacked brilliant success from the standpoint of victories, this was only incidental. Emphasis was on physical conditioning to prepare the boys for future military service.

Miscellaneous Men's Sports

At an assembly for men students, Hack Applequist, director of athletics, announced plans for dropping intercollegiate athletics at SJC. This plan was adopted because of transportation difficulties, and physical education was to be put on a much wider scale reaching every possible boy in school, thus requiring the direction of the coaches. Physical education was put on a five-day-a-week basis, and every boy had an opportunity similar to that offered by some branches of the Army and Navy.

In Applequist's own words, "We need sports at SJC. We need football, basketball, baseball and track to strengthen our boys, to give them strong bodies and a wide variety of skills. We need to give them the ability to take it and come back for more. Too frequently in pre-Pearl Harbor times we gave only lip service about sports to the mass of students. Now sports will touch every man on the campus."

BASEBALL TEAM

Taking Off

TAKING OFF by Jean Buckley, one of SJC's most promising art students, is a portrait of a typical graduate of 1943: tough, determined, eager to get into action and see the war through to triumphant victory. In a few skillfully drawn strokes of the pencil, Jean says, in so many lines, "Thumbs Up" to the graduates.
